ever have to feel like ours did when my dad was hurt. I've been part of the Shepard Law team since 2005 and have had the opportunity to zealously represent many families and make sure that someone is fighting hard for them. I take great pride in the relationships I have developed with my clients and their families. It is important for me to get to know my clients as individuals, so I can better advocate for them in their legal cases. Every client is unique; every family has different dynamics and needs that I try to address in order to make the process a little easier for everyone involved.
